To Whom It May Concern:

By way of introduction, my name is Nick Bollettieri. I founded the Nick Bollettieri Tennis Academy (NBTA) in 1978 as a full-time tennis boarding school dedicated to preparing students for college within an environment that combined intense tennis training with a specially designed academic curriculum. The Academy's success is largely credited to the Academy's approach with preparing the athletes by combining specialized performance (fitness) training and mental conditioning programming with the technical training on the court.

Today, the NBTA is a part of the prestigious IMG Academies, the most successful and diversified multi-sport training complex in the world. I have personally worked with and coached ten #1 tennis players in the world including Andre Agassi, Boris Becker, Jim Courier, Martina Hingis, Marcelo Rios, Monica Seles, Maria Sharapova, Jelena Jenkovic, Venus Williams and Serena Williams.

I am writing this letter in reference to Robin Goodman. Robin has been playing tennis since he was a boy and has been ranked as high as four in the Under 18 UK rankings. Robin is an outstanding young man with the ability to play tennis on a very high level, making him a candidate to play for a Division I University. His morals and work ethic are outstanding because of the high standards that have been instilled into him at a young age. On the court he has great agility, he is extremely competitive, and really strikes the ball well.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at nick.bollettieri@imgworld.com or 941-752-2515.

Sincerely,
